Temple Offers Training to Local Youths

Temple Menorah and Sisterhood announce plans for the projected program of teaching "Living Judaism" to youngsters of the South Bay Area.

Classes are to be held on Saturdays from 9 to 11 a.m.

Complete information concerning the Religious School may be secured from its chairman, Mrs. Albert Kurz at Frontier 5-1614.

It is further announced that Temple Menorah considers present planned facilities a temporary arrangement for its Religious School students until a proposed new building is erected on a recently purchased site at Ocean avenue and Sepulveda boulevard in Torrance.

'COMMUNITY' HIGHLIGHT OF Y MEET

In order to meet a need expressed in the community, the Torrance YWCA will develop a public affairs interest group with the initial meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 29, at 10 a.m. in the Torrance YW, 2320 Carson. Mrs. John Parks and Mrs. Charles Mullen will head the local group.

Mrs. Schuyler Hoffman of Portuguese Bend will meet with those interested in the public affairs program of the YWCA to discuss activities in which such a group might participate.

Any woman interested in helping to fulfill the purpose of the YWCA is invited to meet with the group over a cup of coffee to discuss the possibilities in the Torrance area.

Science Sermon Title 'Reality'

Reality is the nature of God's gift of goodness to man and not an abstraction. This thought is developed in the Lesson-Sermon "Reality" to be heard in the Church of Christ, Scientist, this Sunday.

The Church of Christ, Scientist, in Torrance, is located at 218th street and Manuel avenue, and Sunday services are at 11 a.m.

CARD PARTY

St. Theresa's Guild of St. Margaret Mary's Parish will hold a card party tonight at 8 p.m. with the usual refreshments and prizes at 254th and Eshelman, in Lomita.

St. Margaret Mary's Church will hold its annual bazaar this Saturday and Sunday on the school grounds at the same location.

Wilma Vail Miller has been assigned as teacher in the Torrance Unified School District for the coming school year. Frank S. Demyan has been assigned as teacher in the Torrance Unified School District for the coming school year. Shirley Mae Adair has been assigned as teacher in the Torrance Unified School District for the coming school year.
